Catechism Question of the Week

98. What rule has God given for our direction in prayer?

The whole Word of God is of use to direct us in prayer, but the special rule of direction is that form of prayer which Christ taught His disciples, commonly called the Lord's Prayer.

1 John 5:14; Matt. 6:9-13

Call to Worship—

Leader: May God be gracious to us and bless us and make His face to shine upon us,

People: That Your way may be known on earth, Your saving power among all nations.

Leader: Let the peoples praise You, O God; let all the peoples praise You!

People: Let the people be glad and sing for joy, for You judge the peoples with righteousness.

The Confession of Truth—

"Remember the former things, those of long ago; I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me. I make known the end from the beginning, from ancient times, what is still to come. I say: My purpose will stand, and I will do all that I please." (Isaiah 46:8-10, NIV)
